AAT's Estimated Net Asset Value Per Share

Note: The Net Asset Value (NAV) estimates contained herein have been prepared in good faith by American Assets Trust, Inc. (the "Company") based on both management's knowledge of its core markets and published pricing data. All of such information presented herein is unaudited. In some cases, valuations use assumptions that may be complex and susceptible to significant uncertainty, and may ultimately prove incorrect. Actual NAV may be materially different from the Company's internal estimates and therefore all of such data should only be taken as the Company's indicative values for information only. No reliance should be placed on any estimated valuations without the investor or analyst's own independent determination. Furthermore, the actual value of the Company's assets, as indicated in the Company's stock price, may be materially different from the NAV set forth above. Such estimations and valuations are particularly susceptible to inaccuracies during periods of market volatility or uncertainty, and additional information may become available subsequently which materially alters assumptions or other inputs to the estimates. In the event that an estimated valuation subsequently proves to be incorrect, no adjustment to a previously provided estimated valuation is expected to be made and the Company disclaims any obligation to update same.

Financial Definitions; Non-GAAP Financial Measures

Total Capitalization: Total Capitalization equals Equity Market Capitalization plus Total Existing Debt.

Net Debt: Net Debt equals Total Debt minus Cash and Cash Equivalents.

Earnings Before Interest, Taxes, Depreciation, and Amortization (EBITDA): EBITDA is a non-GAAP measure that means net income or loss plus depreciation and amortization, net interest expense, income taxes, gain or loss on sale of real estate and impairments of real estate, if any. EBITDA is presented because it approximates a key performance measure in our debt covenants, but it should not be considered an alternative measure of operating results or cash flow from operations as determined in accordance with GAAP. The reconciliation of net income to EBITDA for the years ending December 31, 2011 through December 31, 2018 and the proforma calculation for December 31, 2019 and December 31, 2020 is as follows:

We caution investors that amounts presented in accordance with our definitions of EBITDA may not be comparable to similar measures disclosed by other companies, because not all companies calculate these non-GAAP measures in the same manner. EBITDA should not be considered as an alternative measure of our net income (loss), operating performance, cash flow or liquidity. EBITDA may include funds that may not be available for our discretionary use due to functional requirements to conserve funds for capital expenditures and property acquisitions and other commitments and uncertainties. Although we believe that EBITDA can enhance an investor's understanding of our results of operations, these non-GAAP financial measures, when viewed individually, are not necessarily a better indicator of any trend as compared to GAAP measures such as net income (loss) or cash flow from operations.

All annualized base rent data of the Company appearing in this presentation is calculated as described in the registration statement that we have filed with the SEC. We caution investors that other equity REITs may not calculate annualized base rent as we do, and, accordingly, our annualized base rent data may not be comparable to such other REITs' annualized base rent data.

Financial Definitions; Non-GAAP Financial Measures (cont'd)

Annualized base rent (ABR) is calculated by multiplying base rental payments (defined as cash base rents (before abatements)) for the month ended September 30, 2019. In the case of triple net or modified gross leases, annualized base rent does not include tenant reimbursements for real estate taxes, insurance, common area or other operating expenses.

Funds From Operations (FFO): FFO is a supplemental measure of real estate companies' operating performances. The National Association of Real Estate Investment Trusts (NAREIT) defines FFO as follows: net income, computed in accordance with GAAP plus depreciation and amortization of real estate assets and excluding extraordinary items, gains and losses on sale of real estate and impairment losses. NAREIT developed FFO as a relative measure of performance and liquidity of an equity REIT in order to recognize that the value of income-producing real estate historically has not depreciated on the basis determined under GAAP. However, FFO does not represent cash flows from operating activities in accordance with GAAP (which, unlike FFO, generally reflects all cash effects of transactions and other events in the determination of net income); should not be considered an alternative to net income as an indication of our performance; and is not necessarily indicative of cash flow as a measure of liquidity or ability to pay dividends. We consider FFO a meaningful, additional measure of operating performance primarily because it excludes the assumption that the value of real estate assets diminishes predictably over time, and because industry analysts have accepted it as a performance measure. Comparison of our presentation of FFO to similarly titled measures for other REITs may not necessarily be meaningful due to possible differences in the application of the NAREIT definition used by such REITs. The reconciliation of net income to FFO for the years ending December 31, 2011 through December 31, 2018 is as follows:

Funds From Operations as Adjusted (FFO As Adjusted): FFO As Adjusted is a supplemental measure of real estate companies' operating performances. We use FFO As Adjusted as a supplemental performance measure because losses from early extinguishment of debt, loan transfer and consent fees and gains on acquisitions of controlling interests create significant earnings volatility which in turn results in less comparability between reporting periods and less predictability regarding future earnings potential. The adjustments noted resulted from our initial public offering and formation transactions. However, other REITs may use different methodologies for defining adjustments and, accordingly, our FFO As Adjusted may not be comparable to other REITs. The reconciliation of net income to FFO for the year ending December 31, 2011 is as follows:

(Amounts in thousands, except per share amounts; includes discontinued operations)

	Year Ended December 31, 2011
FFO, as defined by NAREIT	$ 74,574
Early extinguishment of debt	25,867

Net Operating Income (NOI): NOI is a non-GAAP supplemental earnings measure which the company considers meaningful in measuring its operating performance. We define NOI as operating revenues (rental income, tenant reimbursements and other property income) less property and related expenses (property expenses and real estate taxes). Other REITs may use different methodologies for calculating NOI, and accordingly, our NOI may not be comparable to other REITs. Since NOI excludes general and administrative expenses, interest expense, depreciation and amortization, acquisition-related expenses, other nonproperty income and losses, gains and losses from property dispositions, and extraordinary items, it provides a performance measure that, when compared year over year, reflects the revenues and expenses directly associated with owning and operating commercial real estate and the impact to operations from trends in occupancy rates, rental rates, and operating costs, providing a perspective on operations not immediately apparent from net income. However, NOI should not be viewed as an alternative measure of our financial performance since it does not reflect general and administrative expenses, interest expense, depreciation and amortization costs, other nonproperty income and losses, the level of capital expenditures and leasing costs necessary to maintain the operating performance of the properties, or trends in development and construction activities which are significant economic costs and activities that could materially impact our results from operations.

Financial Definitions; Non-GAAP Financial Measures (cont'd)

Cash NOI: Cash NOI is a non-GAAP supplemental earnings measure which the company considers meaningful in measuring its operating performance. Cash NOI is equal to NOI as defined above, adjusted for non-cash revenue and operating expense items such as straight-line rent, amortization of lease intangibles, amortization of lease incentives and other adjustments. The Company believes cash NOI provides useful information to investors regarding the Company's financial condition and results of operations because it reflects only those income and expense items that are incurred at the property level, and when compared across periods, can be used to determine trends in earnings of the Company's properties as this measure is not affected by (1) the non-cash revenue and expense recognition items, (2) the cost of funds of the property owner, (3) the impact of depreciation and amortization expenses as well as gains or losses from the sale of operating real estate assets that are included in net income computed in accordance with GAAP or (4) general and administrative expenses and other gains and losses that are specific to the property owner. The Company believes the exclusion of these items from net income is useful because the resulting measure captures the actual revenue generated and actual expenses incurred in operating the Company's properties as well as trends in occupancy rates, rental rates and operating costs.

Use of Non-GAAP Financial Measures

This presentation contains certain non-GAAP financial measures within the meaning Regulation G and other terms that have particular definitions when used by us. The definitions of these non-GAAP financial measures and other terms may differ from those used by other REITs and, accordingly, may not be comparable. The definitions of these terms, the reasons for their use, and reconciliations to the most directly comparable GAAP measure are included in the Financial Definitions herein.
